

House Resolution No. 4668

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State students who admirably demonstrate their true potential as lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders through the excellence of their achievements in the field of sports; and

Whereas, Chelsea Browner of Helias High School has attained considerable distinction as a setter and tri-captain on the 2008 Class 4 Crusaders volleyball team, which took first place at the Lori Endicott Invitational Tournament for the third year, finished third in the silver division of the Quincy Notre Dame Raider Classic, remained undefeated at home for the second year, won twenty-five or more matches for the fifth year in a row, and was recognized as a KRCG "Team of the Week"; and

Whereas, the 2008 Crusaders volleyball team ended the season with 25 wins, 7 losses, and 2 ties and was ranked in the Class 4 Top 10 all year under the astute guidance of head coach David Harris and assistant coaches Courtney Schenewerk, Melissa Price, and Bill Wolters; and

Whereas, a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church, Chelsea Browner is a four-year letter winner who is active in Youth League and the Jefferson City chapter of Zonta International; was named to the 2008 All-District, 2008 All-Region, 2008 All-State honorable mention, 2007 All-District, and 2007 All-Region teams in volleyball; was on the 2007 and 2005 Class 4 Sectional championship teams; was part of the 2005, 2006, and 2007 Class 4 District championship teams; and was one of five senior players who coordinated a Dig Pink event, for which the team dedicated the October 6th match to breast cancer awareness; and

Whereas, Chelsea Browner has a career record of 113 wins, 26 losses, and 5 ties and is the Helias recordholder in single season assists, career assists, career digs, and career service points; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse daily activities in order to recognize such outstanding Missouri students as Chelsea Browner:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal, academic, and athletic achievements garnered thus far in the life of Chelsea Browner and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued success in life for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Chelsea Browner of Helias High School in Jefferson City, Missouri.
